Readings for Today

Psalm 65: 9-13 (Good News)

⁹ You show your care for the land by sending rain;
you make it rich and fertile.

You fill the streams with water;
you provide the earth with crops.

This is how you do it:

¹⁰ you send abundant rain on the plowed fields
and soak them with water;

you soften the soil with showers and cause the young plants to grow.

¹¹ What a rich harvest your goodness provides!
Wherever you go there is plenty.

¹² The pastures are filled with flocks;
the hillsides are full of joy.

¹³ The fields are covered with sheep;
the valleys are full of wheat.

Everything shouts and sings for joy.

together with: Proverbs 13:23

²³ The field of the poor may yield much food, but it is swept away through injustice.

Matthew 6:25-33 (NIVUK)

²⁵ 'Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes? ²⁶ Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they? ²⁷ Can any one of you by worrying add a single hour to your life?

²⁸ 'And why do you worry about clothes? See how the flowers of the field grow. They do not labour or spin. ²⁹ Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendour was dressed like one of these. ³⁰ If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, will he not much more clothe you – you of little faith? ³¹ So do not worry, saying, "What shall we eat?" or "What shall we drink?" or "What shall we wear?"³² For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them.³³ But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Collect
 Faithful Lord,
 whose steadfast love never ceases
 and whose mercies never come to an end:
 grant us the grace to trust you and to receive the gifts of your love,
 new every morning,
 in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
